What did the children learn about in the past 3 months?

In Fiq'h the students have learnt about the etiquettes of handling the Holy Qur'an, drinking, eating and sleeping as well as rulings regarding other daily activities. 9 of the students are completing their Qa'idah and 9 have moved on to learning the Qur'an looking inside. Most of the students have learnt almost 15 Surahs from the Qur'an by heart. The students have also started to memorise daily Duas which are to be recited in Salah.

Overall progress of students:

The students are progressing well. They have been learning a lot through these lessons and the behaviour of the children has improved at home also. They are attending the lessons regularly and are receiving 20 hours of Islamic education a week.

Advice given to teacher:

Teacher was told to carry on with the good work and keep the children motivated.
